On exceedances of high levels

Xia Aihua, University of Melbourne, Australia

Numbers of exceedances of a "high" level in a stationary sequence play the central role in the Extreme Value Theory. In this talk, we'll discuss the suitable approximations to the distribution of an empirical process describing heights of extreme values and investigate the estimates of the accuracy of these approximations. The talk is based on a joint work with S. Y. Novak.