Title: Construction of partial geometric difference sets

Abstract:
In this talk, we will introduce a generalization of (v, k, λ)-difference sets known as partial geometric difference sets. We will discuss the relationship between partial geometric difference sets and partial geometric designs and show that partial geometric difference sets give rise to symmetric partial geometric designs. We will also provide preliminary results concerning partial geometric difference sets and the group rings and characters.